

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
School of Health in Social Science

See our new research centre web pages for further details – Centre for Creative-Relational Inquiry

First Thursday Seminar Series: 2018-19

The 'First Thursday' seminar series engages with innovative, creative and radical conversations about counselling and psychotherapy research and practice

All seminars take place in Room 4.1, School of Health in Social Science, Medical School (Doorway 6), Teviot Place, from 4.30pm to 5.45pm followed by an invitation to continue the discussions across the road at 'Doctors'. No need to book in advance

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| October 4th 2018 | Andy Hardie – Long journeys & wild places: an exploration of wilderness therapy |
| November 1st 2018 | Edgar Rodriguez – When a kiss is an act of resistance: counselling gay men, men who are attracted to other men, and men with other nonconforming identities |
| December 6th 2018 | Michelle Nicholson – Writing therapeutically about pregnancy sickness: The power of process over prose. |
| February 7th 2019 | Sarah Helps – Family therapy: tales from research and practice from different sides of the room. |
| March 7th 2019 | Seamus Prior – Staying the course: what helps practitioners to make a lifelong career in counselling and psychotherapy? |
| April 4th 2019 | Fiona Murray – Counselling at the porn factory: a tour |
| May 2nd 2019 | Nick Totton – We are all body psychotherapists (whether we know it or not) |
| June 6th 2019 | Jeffrey Cornelius-White and Jin Wu – Carl Rogers, the China diary: 100 years on for the musings that are more fun than a "box of monkeys" |